

Nancy Agosto

Nancy Agosto joined MALDEF as our National Director of the Census. Ms. Agosto comes to us with a distinguished career in Spanish language media. She served as news anchor and correspondent for Azteca America and Univision in the Los Angeles, Miami, Washington, and New York markets and is an award winning journalist for her work depicting the plight of those crossing the border from Mexico into the United States and for her compelling stories about social issues in the Latino community. She has received two Daytime Emmy Awards for Best Daytime Newscast and six Golden Mike Awards for her serious reporting of immigration and education issues.

Nancy holds a Master of Arts in Clinical Psychology from Pepperdine University and a BA in Communications and Broadcast Journalism from Temple University. She also works as a mental health therapist and a health educator for several Latino non-profit organizations.
