

Tasha Boone
Assistant Office Chief
2010 Census Publicity Office

Tasha Boone is a lifelong public servant. She joined the Peace Corps as an English Teacher in Botswana, participated in the pilot AmeriCorps Program in Washington, DC, and then transferred to the Corporation for National Service. Tasha then went to work at the Washington, DC, Peace Corps headquarters office.

At the Census Bureau, Tasha has worked in positions that emphasize the need to communicate effectively. She worked on the Census 2000 Marketing and Partnership Program, served as the Census Advisor in the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, was Chief of Outreach and Promotion, and was Chief of 2010 Planning and Coordination. Tasha now serves as the Assistant Office Chief in the 2010 Census Publicity Office.

Tasha earned an M.B.A. with an emphasis in marketing from Johns Hopkins University and a master's certificate in project management from The George Washington University. In her spare time, Tasha volunteers with the Girl Scouts.